

Washington County
News Dec. 8, 2011

Scholarships available from community foundation

The Washington County Community Foundation is pleased to announce the availability of scholarship dollars for area high school seniors for the 2012-2013 school year through the Columbus, Vera & Morris Jones Memorial Scholarship.

This scholarship is for students eligible for graduation from Washington County High School who are hard-working and may not be at or near the top of their class. Applicants must be graduating or have graduated with a minimum of 2.5 GPA on a 4.0 scale, and the recipient must maintain that GPA through his or her first semester of the freshman year of college in order to receive the award. The scholarship will be awarded in the second semester of the recipient's freshman year of college.

Applications are available on our website at www.washington-countycf.org. For more information, please call Randy Wyatt, Chairman of the Board at (785) 325-2202.

The Washington County Community Foundation is an affiliate of the Greater Salina Community Foundation.